Ghost Heart: A Medical Thriller

Synopsis

A brilliant transplant surgeon. A rogue organ broker. A ghost child. And the legend that could destroy them all. A brutal murder convinces surgeon Mia Kendall there's more than she imagined to the mysterious spike in heart transplant rejections. Determined to find answers before she loses another patient, Mia gets sucked into a dangerous international medical web. With time running out for her youngest transplant recipient, Mia is forced to partner with a disillusioned ex-military pilot who flies brokered organs across East Africa. But searching for the truth will prove costly for the unlikely duo racing to stop a madman before he annihilates a rare and cursed bloodline. From best-selling author Lisa Harris and award-winning author Lynne Gentry comes a chilling, hypnotic medical thriller that will take you from the suburbs of Cincinnati to the jungles of Africa.

Customer Reviews

Never imagined the despicable evil that causes harvesting of organs from innocents and persecution of albinos. Interesting how greedy people produce principled children with integrity. Harris & Gentry skillfully work in the background influence of principal characters. The suspense is almost unbearable. The story within a story written by Harry is inspiring in the way fiction changes his thoughts about himself; I would like to see this character in another novel. Resourceful Race is fun to "watch"--have not enjoyed a Race character since my old Jonny Quest watching days! Mia, Jeme--strong women. The title works on so many levels: influence by the Holy Ghost (Spirit); rejected people as "ghosts" of their society; and even the childhood specters of the adults--are the memories true, or the conceptions of a child? I am showing the book trailer to all my students and urging them to read this. You know you have produced a good novel when an English teacher can't refrain from analyzing it--an influential book that will surely be required reading someday!

This is another great book by Lisa Harris. I love her books. They are well written and always interesting characters. You will enjoy the book and I hope it opens your heart to pray that prejudice becomes a lost word.

This is a very good read, but the ending was not well researched. The story was very gripping and there were unexpected twists. Other than the ending being unrealistic, the story was very good.

Wow! Just finished Ghost Heart, it was so well written, characters drew you right into the story. I felt so many emotions, sad, happy, scared, surprised. Great book!

Thrillers are my favorite genre and this one did not disappoint. I loved the strong characters and the intricate plots woven from page one to the end. I am saddened by the plight of albinos in Africa and hope this book educates more people about this horrendous practice.

Riveting! Could not put it down. Congratulations, LYNNE GENTRY! You did it again!!!

Very, very good read!

Wow
