This book starts 2 years after the ending of Volume 4 and the infinite nuclear winter is unyielding and the vampires rule the world and raise humans as nothing more than cattle. There is one small rebel group that stands in the way of the master and that is Eph, Nora, Vasiliy and his gang. I gotta be honest I feel after the incredible ending to Volume 4, this is the volume that makes the series feel like its regressing. As you read the book, most of it becomes so predictable as you read it and the pacing becomes so incredibly fast that you cant keep up on what is happening and the new characters they introduce. It all becomes forgettable though it does do a nice setup for the final chapter of the series.
