180° South

Synopsis

180° South takes readers behind the scenes of the film, 180° South, made by Chris Malloy, to learn more about the people who made the original overland journey to Patagonia in 1968, and the repeat journey over ocean and land 40 years later. The book includes stories of events and experiences that inspired Chris Malloy, Yvon Chouinard, and Doug Tompkins to choose paths committed to saving what's left of the wild world. Open it anywhere and enjoy the photographs by the world's leading surf and climbing photographers Jeff Johnson, Jimmy Chin, Scotty Soen, and Danny Moder.

Customer Reviews

This movie and book had a huge impact in my life. Hands down my favorite documentary I've ever seen and the book was an awesome topper to see further into the making and shaping of these events.

If you are into the nostalgia of the rock climbing pioneers turned philanthropists, this is the book for you. I work next to a Patagonia store and now I really get why when you walk in the front door the first thing you see is the USED CLOTHES section. Very eye opening. Yvon Chouinard is a very cool character. Don't miss the movie too.

Makes you want to quit your job and follow their journey. Excellent photos and great stories, it feels like you're along for the ride the whole time.

I loved this book. Great coffee table fodder. The pictures are simple but are there to keep reminding you that Patagonia is there for you to explore!

If you loved the movie you have to get the coffee table book too!

Amazing book. Great pictures and great story.

Fabulous photography and a great story.
