The ABCs Of Black History: A Children's Guide (Thompson Children's Guides)

Synopsis

Africa is where the first people were born. It has many resources, from diamonds to corn. The book is a bright-colored, quick rhyming journey through the lives of history makers: billionaire businessman Reginald Lewis, Harlem Renaissance novelist Zora Neale Hurston, entertainment powerhouse Oprah Winfrey, and others leap from the pages. Skip along with places, events, and inventions significant to the black experience. Craig Thompson tells their stories in kid-speak, with carefully chosen words that summarize their contributions. And the backdrop for his words is the toasty hues and primary colors of illustrator Roger James. This unique guide is finally in paperback.

Customer Reviews

It's okay.

This is my son's (4 yrs old) favorite book!

This a good introduction book to share the Black history to your children. I wish the illustrated pictures were done a little better. But overall this is a good children's guide to Black History. Well done to Craig Thompson. We need more books like this available.

Great purchase. It was only 2.99 so I want the hard copy. Will look for more books from the Author and illustrator

A quality book to learn about abc's and some important people in the world.

The children I tutor in the Oasis program really loved the book. Simple text, but pictures enhanced it.

My 6 y/o son loves this book. The rhyming makes learning about history easy and fun.

anecdotal information more of and historical outline , I expected more detail brought it for a second grader. not satisfied at all
