A wonderful, comprehensive book about the Holy Spirit. Who is he, why does his connection with us matter? How does the spirit of religion keep us trapped from those things that God wants to teach us and wants us to experience? I want to emphasize that this is NOT some charismatic, name it and claim it book - this IS a truly educational book about what we are missing in our faith if we don't understand our connection with the triune God. What does salvation really mean? How does it reflect in our everyday life? Finally how do we tap into this amazing power?"Until we let go of all our intellectual, emotional and theological hangups, we will struggle to be filled by His Spirit" "We are so easily impressed by the accolades and the qualifications of men that we pay more attention to what men say than the Holy Spirit." (Chapter 2)."Knowing God is more than a cognitive appreciation for the written word, it is also a divine relationship with Him." "We have become too reliant on ourselves and our governments, technology and science." "God promised that he would send out his spirit and empower his people in the latter days and until Christ comes back, we are living in the latter days." "Both God's Sovereign Will and our ability to make choices both good and evil are parallel truths we must just accept as something we won't understand here on earth (fatalism is not what the Bible teaches)." (Chapter 4)The author takes us through the Bible showing us that Holy Spirit has been with us since the beginning of time and will continue to be with us until the end of days. He provides clear Biblical examples of the role of the Holy Spirit in believers' lives and how this power manifests itself in those who truly believe with the heart. Christianity is not a head religion, it is a heart religion. It begins with an awareness and a stirring caused by the Holy Spirit. Sadly too much so-called Christians believe only with their minds and have never made that heart-to-heart connection with the Father's Heart.This book will do more than inform you of thing that you thought you knew, (but you will discover that didn't know what you thought you did), it will also compel you to get to know your Heavenly Father in an entirely new way. It will inspire you to open your heart to the source of true love and discover power you never knew you had. This will be a book that you will read many times and you will continue to learn new truths every time you read it.

Awesome holy spirit filled book it gave me confirmation on a lot of things I experienced thank you continue to write spirit filled books

I have been asked to give an unbiased review of this book. First, what God creates is always good and perfect. All of us are creations of God, in the Spirit. When we were created, we were created eternal, for what God creates is eternal. God does not makes bargains. When you pray to God, your spirit is renewed. In truth, sin does not exist, since God did not create sin. When Jesus spoke of the Kingdom of Heaven, He spoke of realizing Who we are in truth. This is beyond the comprehension of those who are spiritual infants. Satan does not exist, although he is mentioned in the book of Job. Job did not exist either, since the book is an allegory. I understand many Christians believe Satan does exist. What causes us misery in our lives is our egos, and past Karma. We identify with the body, and when the body dies, the ego dies also. The ego in reality does not exist; it is a fabrication. If you love God, you will be blessed, but too many people worship success, money and prestige. The Lord says 'you shall not put any gods before me'. In the Old Testament, Israelites worshipped other gods and were punished. Remember, it took them 40 years to reach the promised land from Egypt, a relatively short journey. The Holy Spirit guides our lives. We were given everything when we were created; we should not pray to God as beggars. The greatest sin is not knowing Who you are in reality. You are not a body, you are spirit eternally. The author approaches the Holy Spirit as a Christian, and quotes liberally from the King James Bible. The author dwells too much on sin, and how Jesus died for our sins. I believe Jesus in spirit is eternal, and still lives. He no longer exists as a man in a body. Jesus always said the 'truth shall set you free'.
