Illustrator Linda Hill Griffith tries to infuse her life, as well as her designs, with joy and humor. She has illustrated countless greeting cards, calendars, and children's books for companies such as HarperCollins. She lives in Orange County, California.

David knew something exciting was happening. Uncle Andrew and his girlfriend Sarah were talking to Mommy and Daddy. Everyone was hugging and smiling. David peeked into the room. "Come in, David," said Uncle Andrew. "We have some big news!" "We're going to the zoo?" David loved animals. "Better than that," said Uncle Andrew. "Sarah and I are getting married...and we want you to be the ring bearer!" "Hooray!" David shouted. "I'm going to be the ring bearer!" "Uncle Andrew," David said, a little bit nervous, "I'm not sure I'm big enough to be a bear, but I'll try." Uncle Andrew explained. "Being a ring bearer means that you will be my special helper during our wedding ceremony. You will get to wear a grown-up suit and walk down the aisle holding our rings. It will be very exciting." David wasn't sure it would be as much fun as the zoo, but he trusted Uncle Andrew.

I bought this for my 4 year old ring bearer and it's perfect. I believe it could really be used for any age. In the story, the boy's uncle asks him to be the ring bearer. They talk about what he'll wear, what he'll do, how to use his manners, etc. They talk about the importance of a ring bearer. In this story, a frog jumps in the church as the wedding begins and the boy is able to catch the frog and save the wedding.

Awesome gift for a ring bearer, especially young enough to where they are starting to learn to read! Highly recommend.

This book will be carried by my great-nephew who will be about 21 months old when he will be a ring bearer at my daughter's wedding in October. There will also be an older ring bearer who will actually carry the rings on a pillow. We were trying to figure out what little Mason could carry. This book is perfect and is quite appropriate because Mason is blond just like the little boy on the front cover of this book and will be wearing a black tuxedo.

Cute story! I changed the names to the names in our family and really helped my 3 year old learn his role as ring bearer.

We made it ! Our 4 yr old grandson enjoyed the book and practiced a lot at home holding the ring pillow and the wedding went off without a hitch. I highly recommend this fun book for any planning on having a young ring bearer in their wedding!

Awesome book! Exactly what I was looking for!

Its a simple gift, that served its purpose well.

Shipping was a little off, but the book was as expected.
