Around The World: A Colorful Atlas For Kids

Synopsis

A lively illustrated introduction to the countries of the world and the seven continents, this bright, playful atlas gives inquisitive readers just enough information to whet the appetite for exploration. Sprinkled with imagery that picks out a country's unique essence—like the giant squid and penguins of Antarctica, and a dragonfly-shaped kite from Vietnam's International Kite Festival—and trivia that informs, this atlas makes a great gift for curious kids.

Customer Reviews

"Striking a neat balance between artistry and geographical detail, it's an appealing resource for visual learners." Publishers Weekly, March 2, 2015

Anita Ganeri is an award-winning author of more than 100 children's books. She lives in northern England with her husband, children, dogs, and cat. She enjoys reading, walking the Moors, playing tennis, and dreaming of winning Wimbledon. Christopher Corr was born in London and studied at the Royal College of Art. His round the world travels provide much inspiration for his work.

My son and family lived overseas for several years; they now live in Texas but my son travels internationally for his work, I bought this for my grandson so he could learn about the places he has lived and the places his father is going. A success so far.

Great for young children because it has really fun graphics to coordinate with the country/continent on each page.

The maps are not as detailed as I would like. I wanted to be able to show my daughter where she lives. It is more country specific, but not state/region specific.

A little different than anticipated, but very nice.

Such a CUTE and colorful book! My 5 year old son, who loves all things "world" can get lost in this for a loooooong time just looking at the places and pictures. Great buy!

My three-year old grandson loved this book. He's a puzzle enthusiast, and he enjoyed finding all the pictures he could recognize on the drawings of the different countries. I paired this purchase with a children's globe, which made for a great gift package.

This book makes it fun to look at maps! The pictures and colors are fun and there are so many different maps to look at. It's always nice to have something educational that is enjoyable!

My granddaughter loves to follow my travels in this book. Colorful maps & fun facts. I think a 3-4 year old would love this book.
