Customer Reviews

So much truth in so little amount of pages. I recommend this book to anyone seeking reassurance in the Lord. When I bought this book I was going through a spiritual drought and the Lord used this book to bless me in a big way. If you buy it you won't be disappointed.

Watchman Nee was a prolific writer whose books are in line with scripture and full of spiritual depth and riches. Like any human Nee sometimes seems to have odd ideas, but his writings overwhelmingly glow with the truth of Jesus Christ. His life was consistent with his profession. Sit Walk Stand gives a framework for Ephesians that will provide the people of the Living Lord millennia of fodder for fruitful reflection. It's compact, easy to grasp, yet worthy of reading many times over. If you do, you will find that there is always something new, or a shade of depth you previously missed.

Ever since I was a child, I'd heard about Watchman Nee and his wonderful writings. It wasn't until my adult years that I finally ordered three of his books - and I haven't been disappointed. Sit, Walk, Stand is a very simple, yet deeply profound explanation of the Book of Ephesians. The book is an easy read and short - only 78 pages long - but don't let that fool you - Sit, Walk, Stand has more packed into these 78 pages than most books over 300 pages (and it takes 1/10 the time to read!). If you want a book that will give you a wonderful explanation of the Christian life - that will bring to life the Book of Ephesians - then get this simple and profound book. Every college student should have one of these in their backpack, it makes a great gift to a friend - you can even mail this little booklet to a friend far away. My version is published by Tyndale House Publishers and I ordered it online for $5.00. I would think that a mature junior high student would be able to read and understand this book. On a difficulty scale from 1 - 10, Sit, Walk, Stand is about a 3 or 4. Simple...yet profound.

Watchman Nee has done a fantastic job with this book. This work is such a nice balance between an exegetical verse by verse analysis of Ephesians and truly devotional fleshing out the implications of that study in a very applicable way. He has real insight into how we must first understand our position in Christ and how we rest in His salvation in order to work it out in our lives. I think he really nails what Paul is getting at, and yet leaves you with his own deep understanding of the implications of that worked out in our lives. I wish we had more modern day Christian thinkers like him, who expressed themselves so well. His work is truly theological but does not come off a dry or purely rational work. It is a real example of how our reflections should lead to our obedience.

The general workmanship of the materials that were used to construct the paperback book may be inferior, to more expensive publications, however you cannot beat the price, especially if you were to buy a number of these books for a bible study. It is the content of the writing of this book that far exceeds the quality of service or the material (paper, binding, cover) that it was constructed with that really matters. Sit, Walk, Stand, by Watchman Nee, can enable you to see a heavenly vision of the church, as I saw in the year 2000, and others have seen over the past 75 plus years.

Excellent!

always good to read anything by Watchman Nee; This was recommended by a dear friend- I look forward to reading Great book. Simple and uncomplicated. Would recommend for any new Christian/anyone that's curious about our Lord Jesus Christ.
