Customer Reviews

Great information for travelers heading to the Netherlands on a budget, and for those who want to spend a bit more. Lonely Planet still remains my go-to travel guide series.

Lonely Planet books are the best! Easy to read and understand. Great logical layout and order. So many great tidbits of information!

Lonely Planet puts out nice guidebooks!

Will try it out when we go there next week. But reading it beforehand, it seems to have everything we want to know.

Always dependable information

This book was very helpful to us in planning our road trip.

Pretty good guide book. I bought this book in the airport before I went to visit family in the Netherlands. I have visited the Netherlands three times before and thought for my fourth trip that I should finally get a guide book to find some "hidden" places. I read this book mostly on the train and it was interesting and informative. Some of the destinations were overhyped(Hoge Veluwe national park), but the rest of the book was accurate and interesting. In the end, leave some of the destinations to your own discretion and do some research outside of the book for places you'd like to go. The biggest benefit this book provided me was directions to destinations. I usually didn't have internet, so having this book on hand was a lifesaver.

Up to date and very detailed.
