Customer Reviews

As with all Mozart scores, the Barenreiter version is the most recommended for it's accuracy. However, I bought this edition as well, as I was doing a production in English which was using "the Schirmer translation".. this is done occasionally in certain opera houses. An interesting translation. When this happens I always prefer the cloth-edition over the paperback, just as if you're going to be using the score intensely (as most of us do during productions).. it definitely prevents as much wear and tear.
