Transforming Brokenness into Christmas Joy  Christmas is often associated with joyful traditions like baking cookies, exchanging gifts, and remembering the birth of our Savior. Yet for people experiencing difficulty— the ache of a loved one lost, the uncertainty of a job situation, or even the anxiety of a hectic Christmas schedule— the pain can overshadow the joy.  The heartwarming stories of Christmas in My Heart 14 celebrate love’s triumph over brokenness. So pour yourself a mug of hot cocoa, stretch out in your favorite chair, and rediscover the joy that awaits you at Christmastime.

As usual Joe Wheeler did good.

I am reading the last story BY THE FIREPLACE, now on Christmas Day. Long story, but a beautifully written story that everyone should read, especially long time married couples.

Excellent stories that I would highly recommend. The stories are wholesome and the characters are honorable. Very enjoyable reading.
