Fifty Places To Dive Before You Die: Diving Experts Share The World's Greatest Destinations

Synopsis

The earth's oceans hold many wondrous surprises; be they the small, colorful critters off the coast of Papua New Guinea, opportunistic red demon squids in the Sea of Cortes, or naval wrecks in the lagoon of Bikini Atoll. In Fifty Places to Dive Before You Die Chris Santella has invited diving experts from around the world to share some of their favorite destinations, so ardent divers can experience these underwater wonders for themselves; either on location in their SCUBA gear, or at home in their armchair. The fifth in Santella's bestselling Fifty Places series, the book takes divers from hot-spot destinations like Raja Ampat (off the coast of West Guinea) to old Caribbean favorites like Grand Cayman Isles. Readers will swim among whale sharks off Myanmar, befriend wolf eels off the coast of Maine, and marvel at the giant mola mola of Lembongan, Indonesia. These wonderful creatures; plus the brilliant coral reefs that often provide their backdrop; are captured in 40 gorgeous color photos from the world's greatest underwater photographers. And for readers who want to travel to these breathtaking locales, Santella provides complete If You Go suggestions to help you plan your trip.

Nothing of substance here really. I thought it could make a nice coffee table book but there's almost no pictures and the texts are pretty dry with nothing really to inspire awe or excitement. The cover I feel is the nicest thing about it.

Good content on the dive locations. Not so pleased with the fluff about the mostly over educated, a credited, did this and did that, was ordained by the queen of scotts over laden academies the writer pours on at end of each dive location. Maybe the writer was filling pages or had some old Texas Holdem debts to repay. 3-16-16

My husband loved this. It was a quick backup plan to Father's Day.

nice book for coffee table reading

No maps included, just basic reviews of dive locations...which is ok, but small maps would be very nice, and really expected in a book like this.

It is ok, but not a book you would read over and over, or put it in the middle of the living room. Could be better in the pictures of the 50 places to dive, since in many of them you just see a picture of a shark...

It's a good bucket list of diving but the photos are disappointing

I ordered $200 worth of coffee table books from , and this one was my least favorite. I regret buying this book. I thought that it was going to be a large coffee table book, but ended up being very, very small. Not sure what to do with it. I feel like I wasted $16 or however much money I spent on it. Not happy, thinking about returning it.
