Tomas: A Time Travel Romance (Dunskey Castle Book 3)

Synopsis

A call from an old friend stirred up feelings Amber thought she had buried years ago. Kelsey wanted help at a dig under an old Scottish castle - with Tomas's twin brother. She couldn't believe it. If his brother was back in their lives, wouldn't Tomas be, too? She didn't jinx it by asking Kelsey that. Nope, but she was on the next flight.

Customer Reviews

I enjoyed Tomas as the third in the Time Travel Romance series! This story focuses more on Tomas and the spell he was under - and Amber's determination to free him...I enjoyed this book as it is a great way to escape the world and enter a magical place with fun characters! Tavish and Kelsey, Seamus and Sasha, as well as others were growing with the story and fleshed this out beautifully. The different characters are well developed and feel real... The author has created a believable world where we feel we are there! The stories are intriguing and keep you reading til the very end! Again, this is a wonderful book to lose yourself in... when you need an escape with pure enjoyment!The author has written another engaging tale surrounding a group of previously close-knit friends... Tomas and Amber find each other, but... there are obstacles. It's up to Amber to find the way for them both. Here, we find the female taking the initiative to fight for what is right. We find Amber to be a deeper character than she first appears, and you have to love her as she rises to the challenges! I was given an ARC, and I am pleased to share this review. I love this story as well as the previous in this series to have bought them - and I have pre-ordered the next book! If you love adventure, romance, going back in time, fighting evil... you will love Tomas! (And, you might want to read the others as well since you might get hooked!)

Just read an ARC copy for free for an honest review. Another awesome book for this series. I like this author, have read all of the books as well as the extras sent via email, and she can keep the stories coming! I wish I could travel to this castle myself. LOL

Suitable for pre teens. Written with them in mind. Rather silly and plenty of googoo eyed content. I didn't enjoy the first two and didn't intend on buying this one. Not sure how I ordered it.

I liked the first two books better. I kept getting lost in this one. I kind of felt that it was a rush job. There were time that it should have been the same day in the book but then the next sentence it was days go by. I didn't like the character Tomas very much felt like he was a wimp. It was an ok read but by far not a favorite. Just so, so.

Another great read by Jane Stain! I have now read Tavish, Seamus and Tomas. All three are wonderful but must be read in order to keep the stories going. Now I find that there are more on this series so I can't wait to get the next one!!!!

So much going on as well as the time travel. Very interesting story. Some a little far fetched, but still interesting. I do recommend reading it if you love Highlanders and all the joy they bring to a story.

Another great read. Interesting and it pulls you into the story so you want to keep going to see what's next. Three of three books so far and am looking forward to more. Not disappointed.

Several places I thought I might be rereading the previous books just to be able to get through this storyline. Yikes. At least two open ended story lines for future books.
