Customer Reviews

This book is written in a way that it greatly prepares you for the exam. It gives you tips to prepare the day before as well as test taking myths and facts. It has 3 tests that are all very different and each question makes you really pay attention and use your critical thinking skills. Most importantly, the answer keys is more than the norm. It explains to you what the question was asking and why the wrong answers were wrong and tge right one was right. This helps you understand exactly where you went wrong so you can actually learn from your mistakes and use that information to better understand understand how you should think in order to pass this exam. Overall I greatly enjoyed taking these practice exams. I learned alot and it was not in any way boring like so many other books like this. Well with the small amout of money they are asking for this.

The LSAT Practice Exam Prep Book has 3 different practice test, all of which are different from one another. The best part after reviewing your answers is how to book explains why the given answer is the best option. This book is not obnoxiously big and allows you to take it anywhere where you have a dew extra minutes of time to study. I truly recommend this book.

This is a great practice book for anyone who is going into law school. I enjoyed it very much, cannot wait to see what else this company can come up with, maybe a book to practice for your cpa.

This are very good books, well written, and its contents is well arranged.

nice, thorough book full of information I needed to practice for the LSAT

Solid preparation for the exam. The material is organized methodically and comprehensively. Well worth the buy.

This practice exam book is very helpful. I was able to go through the material with great ease. The information provided is up to date and very helpful. Amazingly enough it helps to provoke one to study easier and takes away the test anxiety.

Excellent supplemental study resource. Contains 3 practice tests. Definitely a book to have and go through before the LSAT.
