Customer Reviews

The mother of a family and the author of many children's books, writes regularly for the children's press.

My daughter loves to read this together in the evenings. Was a little disappointed in the lack of information within the actual bible. I guess I had hoped it would have had more to it. I would say it's definitely geared more toward younger children. My daughter is 8 and once we finish the short chapters she kind of looks at me and says "that's it??"

This was a little simpler in story form than I had wanted, but it would be a good story Bible for younger kids or kids who don't have the attention span to listen to a longer story. Illustrations are nice, just not too much to each story (pretty much a paragraph or so of simplified story).

A very easy to follow, simple version of the Bible for younger children. The illustrations are very nice and the Bible stories are easy to follow for children from the age of 3 and up. I haven't found anything objectionable in the interpretations, and the messages are appropriate and faithful to the traditional versions. A great start for young Christians. It is a sturdy book, as well. Which is a plus!

great for kids

Great for children to begin a journey of faith! The children love this book. It is a great gift for children or grandchildren.

I definitely give this book a 5 star. I gave each of my grandchildren one .. They range in age from 5 to 9. The pictures, page quality and text are very appealing at their current ages. They spend a lot of time just looking at the pictures after we read the stories. Would buy again in a heartbeat.

Our tradition for special parties (birthdays, Baptisms, etc.) is to have a special book relevant to the theme and have all guests sign it. I bought these Bibles for that purpose for my twin girls' Baptisms. I was pleasantly surprised that the front and back covers have an inner fold that opens double wide to give lots of room to write special messages. Great Bible as well!

Beautiful illustrations and stories
