Customer Reviews

White Cat Black Cat is a wonderful rhyming book that children will love. A learning lesson in diversity and acceptance of our differences, colors, and the realization of the importance of friendship. Sigal Adler is a gifted and talented author. Children will love the illustrations!

A charming story in rhyme with important values about love for others no matter what color they are. The illustrations are beautiful, bright and happy. Warm recommendation for all beginner readers preschoolers and for all those who love cats.

Such an adorable children book to learn beautiful friendship from the cats' point of view. The story is very humorous, and the illustration is original and vivid, and we can also enjoy the beautiful rhymes. If you are a cat lover, you will definitely fall in love with this gem. Thank you so much for a wonderful work!

Two cats of different colors meet for the first time. Each is full of disdain for the other based on color. Then they think and decide to become the other one. Both discover both are needed and good. Neither is better than the other. I liked the rhyming. It was fun to read aloud. The illustrations are wonderful. It teaches a lesson we all need but it doesn't preach.

I like the fact that this book is simple, gives a good children's based introduction to race relations as well.

This is an awesome kid book! My child really loved the colorful characters (no pun intended lol) Waiting for part 2

This is very cute and a quick read. Great message, loved it!

My 7 year old son loved this book. Good funny story in rhyme !!!
