Christmas with Southern Living

As one who loves to decorate my house every year for Christmas, I have been slowly collecting all the "Christmas with Southern Living" books. I love the decorating ideas that I get from these books, the photography is outstanding and the recipes sound delicious! And this particular book is no different!

This edition certainly did not disappoint. Every page is more beautiful and inspiring than the one before. The food looks delicious; the recipes are great. I was awestruck over the decorations! I highly recommend!

This book arrived in excellent condition just days after I ordered it. A worthy seller with which to do business

This book has such a wide variety of Christmas ideas packed in I'm surprised it's light enough to carry. Many decorations are not too costly to be reproduced at a reasonable cost for the home or as gifts. I already have some under construction for gift giving with several more in the planning stage. The food and table designs have me aching for the season to be begin! Check out the section on decorating mantles and fireplaces, it's amazing. I love this book!

Each year, Southern Living does a special Christmas book. How they keep coming up with the ideas, I don't know. This book is just as solid as previous years, with a good mix of casual, country, contemporary and elegant decorating designs. The food section is also wonderful, with lots of terrific recipes, although they do tend to cater to their core Southern audience with foods the rest of the country won't necessarily enjoy. Always worth the price, especially the discounted price.

The book, as always, is great. It has so many decorating ideas and wonderful recipes. Need to start early to get it all done.

As always, I enjoyed the Christmas with Southern Living 2000, but found that some of the suggestions for decorating and gifts were more 'seemingly crafty' than in other years! As an interior designer, I enjoy the fine furnishings and decorating tricks, but wasn't as thrilled this time around. Recipes look great though and I'm eager to get busy planning for next season!
