Customer Reviews

Hi Sir Damir,I am new to forex trading and have been learning the past 2 months - reading books, looking at charts, listening to trading podcasts (I hope Chat with Traders would interview you someday) and youtube, doing the demo accounts, etc. Though I could say that have learned so much in the past couple of months, I could say I've learned so much more the past few days reading your books.I stumbled on your "50 Pips a Day" strategy kindle book and found it to be very logical. So I bought your books one by one and read it, until I ended up buying and reading all of it in a span of 3 days. Each time I read a book, I discover something new and not just a concept but the whole strategy itself. I've heard one trader from a podcast who once said "there is always something happening in the market", and in deed it is true. But the thing is most do not know how to take advantage of what is happening. With all those strategies at my disposal, I think I could trade at all types of market (trending or ranging) and at high and low time frames and approach it at different angles. I'm currently in the process of back testing the strategies this week. Thank you!!!! Happy New Year!!!!

As a novice to forex trading I have opted to read all of Laurentiu's books in preparation of trading. Each book delivers a clear and concise strategy, and forex graphs now have meaning for me. Laurentiu also gives sound money management advise. Start with the 50 pips a day book and move forward from there in no particular order. Each book feels like a new secret is being revealed, and collectively you have strategies to trade with the trend, trend reversals and range trade on short and longer time frames. I am not yet trading live, but research into past price action reveals that these strategies look to work well.

Laurentiu Damir is my trading mentor. I wish I've read his book when I started trading. He's writing is precise and the concept is the very essence of trading.

Trading seriously doesn't have to be hard! and in this book, i enjoyed reading every page, its sometimes hard to read a trading book, i wont lie haha...but he had me at every page, i then after reading, opened Forex tester, and am beginning to study how he views the market, first trades pulled in a fat cat! 150 pips about~ not too bad for a first trade huh? for the price, there is nothing better, seriously passionate guy, and i truly believe he wants all of his readers to succeed! Thank you!

All of Mr. Damir's books are well written. Brief but concise as the header says. His analysis are spot on, easy to follow and understand with clear and precise rules. His books are very affordable but equal in quality to books and programs costing much more.

I have bought all the books from this author and I am definitely looking forward to using his strategies. I love the fact that a pro trader gives you actual plans and strategies he used in the past. I am already looking forward to his next book!

Thanks a lot. I learned something helpful. I recommend this for beginners as me I just did not get the stop losses being placed higher than the price .::::Best regards Great Read! I love how there is no fluff in the books, just right to the point. Great read for the novice trader looking to learn price action. Lots of practice needs to be done but if you take the info and really apply it, you will make some pips.
