This book reads easily; is not too simplistic, but also is not full of jargon. Great introduction to Druidry, whether your intentions are to begin to practice, you want to incorporate a new philosophy into your belief, or just to learn more about other practices and beliefs, this is a well written addition to your library.

Penny Billington, a member of The Order of Bards, Ovates and Druids has written a fine book. An excellent book. The only thing that would make it a supreme book is if it was a hardback.

It's ok. The beginning was great and I was so excited when I first started reading it. Then it got more like a factual history book instead of a how-to with exercises. I've stopped reading it but may pick it up again someday.

Well written book and enjoy having it in my library
