Mad Libs is the world-famous word game that has been delighting fans of all ages since its invention in the 1950s by Roger Price and Leonard Stern. Fill in the blanks of a Mad Libs with any words you choose, and become the author of your own story!

If you want to laugh, buy this book. Our young son loves Uncle Grandpa, and subsequently my wife and I have become moderate fans considering we watch it daily whether we want to or not. This book was in my "Suggeste for you" section of and I had to give it a shot. I loved mad libs growing up, and I had to find out what kind of off the wall stories this book would create. Throw my somewhat crazy brain in with Uncle Grandpa oriented Mad Libs and you get some pretty epic short stories. Well worth the investment. Hopefully they make some more...

My grandkids love Mad Libs. This year I put them in the stockings of the two 8-year-olds and the 10-year-old. We had a lot of fun, and it helped them gain confidence in using adverbs, adjectives, nouns, etc. What a great way to learn and laugh at the same time!

My sons love madlibs! I really like this particular book because it gives me an opportunity to discuss history with them and they eagerly listen. It doesn't come off as a lesson, but as a discussion. They find it humorous how they alter history with these. From the many we have done, these are well written.

My child loves this book. It is easier to be silly as this uses stories involving Uncle Grandpa and his crew. It also is a sneaky tool for teaching kids some basic parts of speech and to get them reading, all while having fun. If you child likes Uncle Grandpa, I am sure they will love this.

Super fun! Exactly what I expected! I've already filled this whole book and bout to order another one! Great for road trips and drinking nights. I usually do this while everyone is choosing which card they want to place down on cards against humanity. Fun for all!

My 6 year old daughter loves these things! They're fun for me too! And she's learned what nouns, verbs, adverbs, adjectives, plural nouns, etc. are too! Win win!

My grandchildren LOVE these, and it teaches them sentence structure and spelling, as well as reading, while they roll over catching their breath laughing. Ages 7+ the kids are looking forward to playing with these....and so are the adults!
