Colborn - Drogon Healer - SciFi Alien Soul Mates Romance (A Drogon's Fate Series Book 5)

Synopsis

Gil Ra looked around trying to put on a good face and a bright smile. This was supposed to be a second chance in life. But she couldn't stop thinking about the past and what she had left behind. Being abducted by aliens sounded so much like the title of a cheap sci-fi movie, and yet it had happened to her. That night, when she had decided she couldn't take it any longer, the mocking, the loneliness and the feeling she had failed the only person that depended on her completely had become overwhelming, and that night she had decided to end it all. She had left everything ready, no unfinished matters, no one to worry about her and surely no one to mourn her. And so, she had walked in the middle of the night, to the highest bridge she was able to find near the tiny room, she had been living in. She walked out to the middle of the bridge un-spotted, or so she had thought

Customer Reviews

I can't wait for the next book in this series!!! I love them all I just wish there was more to each story I have so many question's like did they chose to convert was it successful for all and most important did any get pregnant and carry successfully!!! What do they look like and did they live hea I am the type that wants to know what cones after the hea like how many children how they felt while carrying the babies in their bellies and how long where the pregnancies cause human gestation is 9 months while theirs is only 4 months and what feels like after the conversion just think what it feel like to have wings I always wanted to fly its my coveted superhero power lol!!! Keep the books coming and I hope to get some answers to my questions!!!

I only got about 50 pages and quit. the heroine was so paranoid and subservient couldn't stand it. she was like a whiney child. she wouldn't say anything and if she did she grovelled all over the place. he was kept in a constant state of "what did I do?" she misunderstood the slightest thing. makes me angry even thinking about her. not my cup of tea at all.

I thought the story was good. Gil Ra is matched with Colborn. He made a decision that seemed to be rejection to Gil Ra. They went back to Earth to get her baby, Nora. Good story, writing is improving very much

I love this storyline. Cannot put this storyline down. Cannot wait for the next in this series. Cannot wait to see what happens to Colborn and the human baby along with the new woman.

Fourth in the series with an interesting twist. If you start at the beginning of the series you won't be sorry. I read the series in 3 days because I couldn't put it down. I love the new world the author created. Great characters and love stories. I'm a sucker for fated mates and this series delivers.

I loved Coldron. How they both fought for to not falling in love, was cool to see. And like many people, they assume rather than ask. The way she showed the Asian woman's submission to the man and/or the elders, was perfect. The importance of maintaining honor, which is so rooted in Asian culture, has been shown flawlessly. I like how she showed the Asian behave about suicide. And the preparation needed to commit suicide. I'm looking forward for more.

Most of the problems in this book are created by characters not communicating very simple things. The characters are stubborn and unthinking. I was at 30% and DNF because how on earth would a DOCTOR (no matter the species difference) not know how to cure a simple fever. Too much heat requires cooling. I think a dragon-like species would even know that. To top it all off, there are extreme grammar errors and poor word choices that could easily be fixed with an edit or two. I'm glad I didn't have to pay for this book because it was painful trying to get through just 30%.

Great characters, not too much repetition from previous books, which I appreciate. I loved the end, and I don't want to spoil it.
