'Informative and easy to read biography' RTE Guide '[Has an] easy, straightforward style that makes it accessible and exciting for readers from nine and upwards' Sunday Tribune

Anne Chambers, fulltime writer, is a best-selling biographer who has received acclaim from critics and the reading public. She has been shortlisted for the GPA and Hennessy literary awards, and lectures extensively on the subjects of her books which have been adapted for TV and widely translated.

Would have enjoyed learning more about Granuaile. She was an amazing individual. Book was too short, but illustrations were helpful.

A good read

This book is written by an Irish author and is very factual. Though interesting it is a very historical reading.
