Customer Reviews

Do you remember as a kid buying comics and enjoying the art work and storyline , then getting a little older and noticing that the heroines having great bodies and there costumes shrinking, at this point a lot of the artists are pushing what they can print and what they cant print, then bam here comes penthouse comix letting the artist lose. Tits and ass like never before in comics . Yes there have been dirty comics in the past, but not with penthouse comix high caliber of storyline or artwork. Im gonna try to get all the issues in the future , cause it just brings you to that younger age trying to see titts and ass of of your favorite heroine. So what im saying is Penthouse brings out that dirty little boy in everyman . Great job Penthouse and thank you.

It is a good reproduction of the original hard copy

It's not bad but the Kindle version had to be zoomed in to read and was a real pain in the neck to go through.

Very good.

A good read for Adults, which became a good series. I was disappointed when Penthouse canceled the publication , very disaaponted

Just wasn't erotic or graphic enough. I was looking for pornography. Looks like the story got in the way. There was no pop shots or penetration scenes. I figured would have come out with a porn mag for the kindle by now. Guess not.

This is a sloppy, re-dacted, re-edited, re-print version of PHC # 1 - not the original version that was distributed on newsstands in 1994 - this version only seems to exist to feature some awkwardly inserted material that changes the package to short-change some of the original people involved w PHC. This is the kind of behavior one might expect from self-destructive sorts who are totally bankrupt. A short while after this "special edition" was originally (print) published, the guy running PHC committed suicide... + Penthouse Magazine went bankrupt.
