Praise for Game Over, Super Rabbit Boy (Press Start! #1): "The fast, repetitive plot uses basic, simple sentences and child-friendly objects of interest, such as lakes of lava, for children working on reading independence, while the nerdy in-jokes benefit adults reading with a child. A strong series start." -- Kirkus"A strong addition to most chapter book collections, especially where there are gamers." -- School Library Journal". . . the gaming gimmick and graphic layout is sure to appeal to many readers, especially reluctant ones." -- Booklist

My son doesn't normally love to read. He will do it because he has too, and then he puts his books up for the day and moves on to building or something else. These books made him read from start to finish! He loved them and laughed out loud while reading them. Both books 1 and 2 were finished within a day of getting them. I only wish there were 10 more of them already published!

My 5-year-old daughter bought the first one in this series at her school book fair and couldn't get enough of it. So I pre-ordered the second one for her, and she was ecstatic when it came. It has a great storyline with relatable characters, and I'd highly recommend it for young readers who are ready for short chapter books.

My six year old grandson LOVED this set of books. He has read them several times and even though he is just entering first grade and these books are grade level 2.9, he passed his Accelerated Reading test with 100%. Any book that gets a kid to read during summer is a winner!

My son loves this book (and the first one), if you have a reluctant reader who likes video games definitely try this book!

The almost three is super rabbit boy all the time now. The six yr old reads it. Good story!

My 6 year old enjoys reading this series on his own and takes a lot of pride in being able to read it himself. It's the perfect book for a gamer and has a lot of pictures and easy text to hold a young child's interest.

Mu 7 year old is really into this book series. Very colorful book. Comic book like.

My son loves this series. Very funny and an easy read for the little ones.
