Sweet simple messages

Angel Cards are a great way to add a focus for your day. Pick a card in the morning and see how it relates to what happens during the day. They also can be used as a way to see various aspects to any problem you have. I've used them for over 20 years but because some have gotten lost, a bit dog-eared and dirty I got this new set, which has some new words added. Try it, you'll like it!

I'm so happy with this item

I bought this book and thought the cards came with it. Then I bought the set. I gave the book to my sister who only had the cards. She didn't know there was a book. She was so grateful and can now understand the meaning behind every card.

This book & the cards that go with it are a great way to start off my day. Draw a word for the day, something positive to focus on, read the affirmation that goes with my word. Start off reading affirmation before my meditation. I've been using these for years. Friends & family draw words when they walk into my room. Fun.

We use these every day at work with our staff and co-workers. Pick a word, leave it out for the day and see how it inspires and matches your day! Many staff stop by more than once a day to pick one, especially if they are in need of some words of "wisdom"!

I've been using these since '90. Excellent for daily affirmation type uses....get the cards with the book!

We thought we were buying a book that contained the angel cards AS WELL AS the explanations of them, but instead it's just the explanations. I don't know why it was so hard to find the actual cards themselves. So, we will need to shop again. Sigh.
